Dear Lynn, James and family:

You were so very gracious to me during my recent visit to the Houston area. I not only thoroughly enjoyed the special service with the young people but I also was happy to have the opportunity to associate with your lovely family.

I could see all kinds of evidences that God has used you mightily in the work there. I do hope that you will find a place where you will feel a greater sense of fulfillment and satisfaction in your service in the future.

Thank you again for being put to so much trouble without showing any signs of the wear. It was great to be with you for a while.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
